

UNIT 3

Let's Read the Story!

In this unit, you will learn the following:

- ✓ Reading the fairytales
- ✓ To identify the generic structure of the narrative text
- ✓ To get a moral lesson from a fairytale

A. Let's Start – What is a fairy tale?

With your friend, discuss the following questions:

- ✚ What are three things story good story should be?
- ✚ What kind of story do you enjoy reading?
- ✚ What do you want in character in a story?
- ✚ Why do you want to be the character of this story?

Adopted from: <https://www.kumon.co.uk/blog/if-you-want-your-children-to-be-intelligent-read-them-fairy-tales-if-you-want-them-to-be-more-intelligent-read-them-more-fairy-tales-albert-einstein/>

A fairy tale is a story that features fanciful and wondrous characters such as elves, goblins, wizards, and even, but not necessarily, fairies. The term “fairy tale” seems to refer more to the fantastic and magical setting or magical influences within a story rather than the presence of the character of a fairy within that story. Fairy tales are often traditional; many were passed down from story-teller to story-teller before being recorded in books. Fairy tales, in the literary sense, are easy to find. Look at your bookshelf or your DVD collection.

You may see titles like these:

- Snow White
- Cinderella
- Rip Van Winkle
- The Twelve Dancing Princesses
- Rumpelstiltskin
- Thumbelina

Adopted from: <https://literaryterms.net/fairy-tale/>