

B. Pay Attention

List of Acts of Kindness Ideas for Friends

Source: https://www.123rf.com/photo_46725612_cartoon-happy-friendship-day-background-with-cute-little-boys-and-girls-illustration-inscription-fri.html

- ✚ Be kind to friends. After all, friends are the family we choose for ourselves.
- ✚ Friendships are some of life's most precious relationships.
- ✚ The very best friends better our lives with their incredible love and support. They aren't just there when we need them — sometimes, they're there before we even know we need them.
- ✚ So do random acts of kindness for friends just because you can. Put a smile on your friend's face because doing so feels good and brightens both of your days.
- ✚ When you think of random acts of kindness ideas for friends, you're really thinking of interesting ways to strengthen the bonds of friendship.

Adopted from: <https://www.kindnessiseverything.com/acts-of-kindness-ideas/list-of-acts-of-kindness-ideas-for-friends/>

Is it a Fact or a Hoax?

Google's Fact Check Explorer is designed to facilitate the work of fact-checkers, journalists, and researchers in discovering what has and hasn't been debunked all over the globe. Think of it as a search engine for fact checks that can help you determine fact from fiction.

STEP 1

To find existing fact checks about topics or people, go to toolbox.google.com/factcheck/explorer.

STEP 2

Type in a keyword to see the latest fact checks tagged with that word.

STEP 3

Search results are listed by recency and include the name of the organization that conducted the fact check and how they rated the claim (for example: "false" or "incorrect"). To read the entire fact check, click the link provided.

STEP 4

To see the most recent fact checks across all topics, click -> Recent fact checks. To search by publisher, use the search modifier site: and enter their URL and your keyword.

Adopted from: <https://newsinitiative.withgoogle.com/resources/lessons/google-fact-check-tools/>